

FRANK KAHN, AIA, LEED

7 University Street
Boston, MA 02111
617.855.5555
frankkahn@gmail.com
<http://www.linkedin.com/in/frankkahn>

EDUCATION

Yale University School of Architecture Master of Architecture, 1989	New Haven, CT
Colby College Bachelor of Arts - Graduated with Distinction in Major, 1984	Waterville, ME
Syracuse University in Florence – Pre-Architecture Program Independent architectural studies, 1982-1983	Florence, Italy

WORK EXPERIENCE / 24 YEARS

1994-2008	WILLIAM RAWN ASSOCIATES, ARCHITECTS, INC.	Boston, MA
	Senior Associate/Project Executive
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Responsibilities included managing multiple projects and clients simultaneously as senior Associate-in-Charge</li><li>• Participated in and contributed to establishing broader organizational goals and operations of firm; and supporting and educating the staff on the values of the firm</li><li>• Participated and led in the development of RFP responses to potential clients and participated in prospective job interviews with firm principals</li><li>• Initiated and negotiated AIA Architect/Owner contracts with potential clients; developing contract language with firm's legal counsel and liability insurer</li><li>• Developed staff budgets for design and documentation phases at initiation of project and maintained reporting to maximize phase profitability</li><li>• Led early development of project construction cost budgets and phased construction estimates with clients and estimating consultants. Developed VE strategies with client and construction management team and successfully executed on-budget projects</li><li>• Instrumental in developing and leading project team's successful design and completion of firm's first USGBC LEED Gold Certified project for the Sophia Gordon Residence Hall at Tufts University. See attached interview http://www.tufts.edu/programs/sustainability/pdf/TCl-Newsletter-Feb06.pdf</li><li>• Associate-in-Charge and primary client contact for new $50 million '62 Center for Theatre and Dance at Williams College http://62center.williams.edu/62center/venue_explore.cfm. The project is the recipient of a 2008 AIA National Honor Award, a 2006 Honor Award from New England AIA and 3 Honor Awards from the Boston Society of Architects. In addition the project was selected (First Prize) as one of two buildings to represent the United States at the 2007 Prague Quadrennial for Theatre Design (the other being Frank Gehry's theatre at Bard College)</li><li>• Led team effort developing a feasibility study for a new theatre arts precinct at Trinity College. Responsibilities included coordinating program concepts with client group and theatre consultant and representing firm in final presentation to Trinity College Board of Trustees</li><li>• Instrumental in developing a prospective client relationship at Amherst College that led to successful campus master-plan and new residence hall</li><li>• Initiated and led staff in mentoring younger interns within the office and maintained excellence in the staff, including interviewing prospective candidates</li></ul>
1992-1994	ELLENZWEIG ASSOCIATES, ARCHITECTS, INC.	Cambridge, MA
	Job Captain / Intermediate Designer
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Led and managed exterior design team (2 persons) through design phases of new academic center for the Sloan School of Business at MIT</li><li>• Developed exterior curtain-wall design and cost parameters w/ manufacturer and curtain-wall consultant on major research tower for Children's Hospital of Philadelphia</li></ul>
12/91-06/92	KALLMANN McKINNELL &amp; WOOD ARCHITECTS, INC.	Boston, MA
	Intermediate Designer
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Led exterior design progression through design phases of new academic classroom building for the Harvard Law School</li><li>• Developed design studies for lab benches at new life sciences laboratory for Yale University</li></ul>

- 08/89-10/91      WHISLER-PATRI ARCHITECTS, INC.      San Francisco, CA
Intermediate Designer
- Responsible for the design, renovation and addition to an existing urban parking garage in downtown San Francisco.
- 09/84-09/88      CENTERBROOK ARCHITECTS & PLANNERS, INC.      Essex, CT
Junior Designer/Intern
- Participated as project team member with Charles Moore on 1-week intensive design workshop for new museum to hold noted collection of American regionalist art at Cedar Rapids Museum of Art.
  - As architecture intern, led development of intern mentoring program and construction of model shop
- 05/87-09/87      YALE SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE BUILDING PROJECT      New Haven, CT
Designer/Construction Coordinator
- Design team member for Barnham Park Pavilion, a new outdoor band shell for summer performances of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra in Bridgeport, CT

OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE/SKILLS

Speaker - The Berkshire Conference - 2005      Williamstown, MA
 Presented and led tour of '62 Center for Theatre and Dance at The Berkshire Conference, a 3-day leadership forum (organized by the Williams College Museum of Art) examining issues facing society, culture and arts institutions today.

Speaker - Planning for the Arts - SCUP Conference - 2004      Williamstown, MA
 Presented and led tour of '62 Center for Theatre and Dance at the 2004 North Atlantic Regional Society of College and University Planners Conference on the role of the arts in a liberal arts education; the past, present, and future of the arts at Williams College.

Design Jury Critic – BAC – 1991-1995      Boston, MA
 Participated in design juries at Boston Architectural Center

Teaching Fellow – Yale University – 1988-1989      New Haven, CT
 Two consecutive years as teaching fellow for Professor Vincent Scully, the Sterling Professor of the History of Art, Yale College, Survey of Architecture undergraduate college course.

Technology Proficiency
 Proficient in Microsoft Windows, Office + PowerPoint, AutoCAD 2008, Adobe Illustrator + Photoshop

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

American Institute of Architects      Washington, DC
 Presented and led tour of '62 Center for Theatre and Dance at the 2008 AIA National Convention

Boston Society of Architects      Boston, MA
 Participated in events of the following committees: BSA/SCUP College & University Roundtable, Performing Arts Design Committee, Codes Committee and the BSA Mentoring Program

Professional Registration Boards of Architects      Boston, MA
 NCARB certified and licensed Architect in State of Massachusetts

COMMUNITY WORKS

Yale University Service Tour – Monterrey Mexico – March 2009      Monterrey, Mexico
 Member of 60-person team of Yale alumni volunteers providing week-long social service assistance to an impoverished community outside of Monterrey, Mexico.

Bare Hill Rowing Association Board Member, Chair, Boathouse Planning Committee      Harvard, MA

Colby College 20th Reunion Alumni Committee      Waterville, ME
 Member of 5-person committee in charge of setting and implementing fundraising goals for our 20th class reunion. Class reunion goal of $65,000 was reached and achieved a 30% increase in class giving history.

Concord Carlisle Community Chest      Concord, MA
 Participated in yearly fundraising Community Chest Challenge event for Concord Carlisle Community Chest from 2004 till 2008